The Melbourne Camera Club

- The Melbourne Camera Club is a friendly, dynamic photography club situated in South Melbourne. The Club was founded in 1891 and owns its own Clubrooms, a heritage listed building in the heart of South Melbourne.
- The club has its own facilities and is able to provide members with a diverse range of services including a gallery, studio and a darkroom.
- The Club aims to assist and encourage individuals in their creative photographic pursuits. We encourage the transfer of skills and the interchange of ideas through meetings, workshops and field work.
- There are a variety of Special Interest Groups ranging from high level digital through to analogue work. These groups meet regularly and are very welcoming of new attendees.
- We have Print and Projected Digital Image competitions, a busy Exhibition program, and also generate a weekly email newsletter for members.
- The Club meets at 8pm every Thursday evening, February to November. Visitors are welcome to attend meetings and Club events and activities – check out the What's On calendar on our website.
