

2025 Camberwell Interclub Nature Competition

Camberwell Camera Club is again coordinating the Interclub Nature Competition, previously known as The Glennie, for participating Australian clubs.

MCC invites all members to consider entering their best nature photos for consideration as part of our club entry. There are 7 categories:

CATEGORIES

This is a digital only nature competition with no prints. There are seven categories:

1. Landscape/Seascape
2. Botany
3. Birds
4. Mammals
5. Invertebrates
6. Other Nature
7. Urban Wildlife

- Image titles should be limited to no more than 45 characters of the English alphabet, or numbers, with no special characters.
- Polyptychs (diptychs, triptychs, etc.) are not permitted in this competition.

There is an entry limit of 10 images per club. Images may be entered in any category but to be eligible for the Club Diversity Awards clubs should enter at least one entry in each of the seven categories.

Nature and landscape/seascapes are defined for this competition as per the definition provided by the Australian Photographic Society Inc. (APS) with the exception of Urban Wildlife.

Only one image will be selected per MCC member.

THE JUDGE

Nicolas Rakotopare – photographer, wildlife conservationist and author based in Queensland

Image Size

- JPEG images of up to 3MB.

Entries can be uploaded via the Club Competitions under Members on the MCC website, by midnight 9 March.
